SIXTH AMENDMENT TO MASTER DEED OF River Bend

(Act 59, Public Acts of 1978)
as amended

THIS SIXTH AMENDMENT TO MASTER DEED OF River Bend is made this 4th day of February, 2020, by Rogue River Bend Condominium Association, a Michigan non-profit corporation (the "Association"), of 555 Cedar Pines Dr., NE, Sparta, MI 49345.

WHEREAS, River Bend is a residential site condominium project (the "Project") established by Master Deed dated January 13, 1998 and recorded February 3, 1998 in Liber 4261, Pages 389 to 473, inclusive, Kent County Records (the "Master Deed"), and designated as Kent County Condominium Subdivision Plan No. 411. The Master Deed was amended by First Amendment to Master Deed dated July 15, 1998 and recorded July 21, 1998 in Liber 4427, Page 25, Kent County Records, and by Second Amendment to Master Deed dated June 15, 2000 and recorded June 23, 2000 in Liber 5080, Page 133, Kent County Records, and by Third Amendment to Master Deed dated December 18, 2001 and recorded January 10, 2002 in Liber 5801, Page 620 to 647, Kent County Records, and by Fourth Amendment to Master Deed dated August 12, 2003 and recorded August 19, 2003 as Document No. 20030819-0164994, Kent County Records, and by Fifth Amendment to Master Deed recorded October 5, 2004 as Document No. 20041005-0133383, Kent County Records. The Association is the association of co-owners of the Project; and

WHEREAS, the Association desires to amend the Master Deed and its Exhibit A, the Condominium Bylaws to reflect relevant changes in the law and other priorities of the co-owners; and

WHEREAS, Article VIII of the Master Deed provides that it and its exhibits may be amended by the Association, with the consent of more than two thirds of the co-owners; and the Association has obtained the requisite consent of the Co-owners to this amendment by consent resolution authorized under MCL 450.2407(1), attached as Exhibit A; and

NOW THEREFORE, the Association does hereby amend the Master Deed of River Bend as follows:

MASTER DEED

1. Article III, of the Master Deed is amended to add the following as new Subparagraph "(u).":

"(u). "Electronic Transmission" means any form of communication that meets all of the following: (a) it does not directly involve the physical transmission of paper; (b) it creates a record that may be retained and retrieved by the recipient; and (c) it may be directly reproduced in paper form by the recipient through an automated process. To the extent the definition of “electronic transmission is modified or expanded under Section 106 of the Michigan Non-profit Corporation Act, or a successor provision, the definition utilized in this Master Deed shall be similarly modified or expanded. An “electronic transmission” is a writing for all purposes of the condominium documents.”

2. Article VIII of the Master Deed is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

“ARTICLE VIII
AMENDMENT AND TERMINATION

8.1 Non-Material Amendments. The Association reserves the right to amend the Master Deed and other Condominium Documents without the consent of co-owners or mortgagees if the amendment does not materially alter or change the rights of a co-owner or mortgagee. A non-material amendment is only authorized to be taken with either the unanimous consent of the Board of Directors of the Association or by a majority vote of all Co-owners who are entitled to vote thereon, and it is presumed to include, without limitation, changes:

- (1) To correct arithmetic errors, typographical errors, survey or plan errors, deviations in construction, or any similar errors in the Master Deed, or to correct errors in the boundaries or locations of improvements;
- (2) To clarify or explain the provisions of the Master Deed;
- (3) To comply with the Act, or rules promulgated under the Act, fair housing laws, or to comply with any requirement of any governmental or quasi-governmental agency or any financing institution providing mortgages on Units in the Condominium Project;
- (4) To make, define or limit easements affecting the Condominium Project;
- (5) To exercise any right which the Association has reserved to itself in the Master Deed, such as the re-assignment of Limited Common Elements or relocation of Unit boundaries (all with the consent of affected Units).

(6) To exercise its reserved rights under Article VII, Paragraph C of the Master Deed to: (1) modify general common elements and convert them into limited common elements; (2) to convert general or limited common element areas into additional space to be encompassed within the dimensions of a Unit or into common elements, limited or general; and (3) to convert Units into general or limited common elements. No exercise of rights by the Association hereunder shall result in a transfer of the area of a Unit or of a limited common element area without the consent of the co-owner whose Unit or limited common element is affected by the exercise of the right. Although the size of Unit dimensions may be increased, no new or additional Units may be created from such convertible areas. All improvements constructed within a convertible area shall be constructed, maintained, repaired and replaced according to such designs, conditions and standards which may from time to time be established by the Association, provided however, that any such permitted improvement shall have a design which is reasonably compatible with the design and appearance of the Project.

(7) To terminate or eliminate reference to or assign any right which the Association has reserved to itself; and to restate the provisions of this Master Deed or its exhibits, or any other condominium document, without making any material changes thereto; and

(8) To facilitate conventional mortgage loan financing for existing or prospective Co-owners and to enable the purchase or insurance of such mortgage loans by the Federal Home Mortgage Corporation, the Federal National Mortgage Association, the Veterans Administration, the Federal Housing Administration, the Farmers Home Administration, the Government National Mortgage Association, and/or by other public or private secondary mortgage entities participating in or guarantying mortgages of Units in the Condominium Project, if the Board of Directors has notice of such participation, and to limit the number of Units in the Condominium Project which may be leased in order to facilitate the foregoing purposes.

8.2 Material Amendments. Except as provided elsewhere in this Article VIII, the Master Deed, Bylaws, and Condominium Subdivision Plan may be amended by the Association, even if the amendment will materially alter or change the rights of the co-owners or mortgagees, with the consent of not less than 2/3rds of the votes of the co-owners and if required by the Act, not less than 2/3rds of the votes of mortgagees who are required to vote on the amendment under the Act. Mortgagee voting shall be undertaken in the manner specified by Article II, Subparagraph 2.06 of the Condominium Bylaws.

8.3. Restrictions on Amendment. Any amendment to the rental provisions of the Master Deed shall not affect the rights of any lessors or lessees under a written lease executed before the effective date of the amendment, provided the lease is otherwise in compliance with the Condominium Documents and the Act; nor shall any such amendment affect the rental rights associated with any Condominium Unit(s) as long as the Unit(s) is/are owned or leased by the Association. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article, the method or formula used to determine the Percentages of Value of Units in the Condominium Project, as described in Article V of the Master Deed, may not be modified without the consent of each affected Co-owner and mortgagee. A Co-owner's Unit dimensions or appurtenant Limited Common Elements may not be modified without the Co-owner's consent.

8.4 Developer Limitation. No amendments may be made to alter or eliminate any easement interests of the Developer or reserved rights of the Developer without the consent of the Developer.

8.5 Township Limitation. No amendment may be made to alter or eliminate the provisions contained in Article IV C(3) of the Master Deed without the prior written consent of the Township.

8.6 Miscellaneous. Co-owners shall be notified of a proposed amendment which requires their approval not less than twenty (20) days before voting is taken on the amendment. A person causing or requesting an amendment to the Condominium Documents shall be responsible for costs and expenses of the amendment, except for amendments based upon a vote of the board of directors, or a prescribed majority of co-owners and mortgagees, the costs of which are expenses of administration. Each proposed amendment shall be accompanied by a separate statement which need not be recorded, designating who is responsible for the costs of the amendment, but the failure to include such statement will not invalidate any duly approved amendment.

8.7 Project Termination. The Project may be terminated only with the written consent of the Association and not less than eighty (80%) of the Co-owners and mortgagees, as follows:

- (1) Agreement of the required number of Co-owners and mortgagees to termination of the Project shall be evidenced by their execution of a termination agreement or by written ratification of the termination agreement, and the termination shall become effective only when the agreement is so evidenced of record.

(2) Upon recordation of an instrument terminating the Project, the property constituting the Common Elements of the Project shall be owned by the Co-owners as tenants in common in proportion to their respective undivided interests in the Common Elements immediately before recordation. As long as the tenancy in common lasts, each Co-owner or the heirs, successors, or assigns shall have an exclusive right of occupancy of that portion of the property which formerly constituted their Condominium Unit.

(3) Upon recordation of an instrument terminating the Project, any rights the Co-owners may have to the assets of the Association shall be in proportion to their respective undivided interests in the Common Elements immediately before recordation, except that common profits shall be distributed in accordance with the Condominium Documents and the Act.

(4) Notification of termination by first class mail shall be made to all parties interested in the Project, including escrow agents, land contract vendors, creditors, lienholders and prospective purchasers who deposited funds. Proof of dissolution must also be submitted to the Michigan Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs or its successor.”

3. Development and Sales Period. The Master Deed (and its exhibits) are amended to delete all references to Developer rights which may be exercised within six (6) years after the initial recording of the Master Deed or during the Development Period, as such periods have expired. All reserved rights of the Association involving the same subjects as the expired Developer rights are preserved.

CONDOMINIUM BYLAWS

1. Article II, Subparagraph 2.03 of the Condominium Bylaws is amended to add the following as new Subparagraph (d):

“(d). Co-Ownership of Units. A Unit whose ownership is held by two or more persons may be voted by any owner unless another joint owner seeks to vote the membership interest in a conflicting manner, in which case the written agreement, if any, that governs the manner in which the membership is voted controls shall control who votes if presented to the Association, either physically or by means of electronic transmission, before the time for casting a ballot expires. If an agreement that governs votes is not presented, the majority in interest of the joint tenants or tenants in common present determines the manner of voting. If there is no majority in interest present, the member votes shall be divided among those joint tenants or tenants in common that are present in person in accordance with their interest in the membership. A Unit owned by married persons as tenants by the entirety shall be deemed to have equal interests.”

2. Article II, Subparagraph 2.04 of the Condominium Bylaws is amended to add the following text at the end of the existing paragraph:

“The certificate shall include an email address, cell phone number, or other address for the delivery of information to the co-owner by electronic transmission. To the fullest extent allowed by law, any notice required or permitted to be given by the Association to a Co-owner may be given by the Association to the party designated in the certificate by electronic transmission, and such notice is considered written and dated when the electronic transmission is sent to such person at an email, phone number or other address designated by the Co-owner for the purpose of receiving notices from the Association.”

3. Article II of the Condominium Bylaws is amended to add the following as Subparagraph 2.06:

“2.06 Mortgagees. The following procedure shall apply whenever an amendment to the Condominium Documents is proposed and the Act or the Condominium Documents require mortgagees of Units to vote to approve the amendment:

(a) The date on which the proposed amendment is approved by the requisite majority of Co-owners shall be the “Control Date”. Only those mortgagees who hold a duly recorded first mortgage or a duly recorded assignment of a first mortgage against one or more condominium units in the Project on the Control Date (“first mortgagees”) are entitled to vote on the amendment.

(b) Each first mortgagee entitled to vote shall have one vote for each condominium unit in the Project that is subject to its mortgage or mortgages, without regard to how many mortgages the mortgagee may hold on a particular Condominium Unit.

(c) The Association shall give a notice to each mortgagee entitled to vote as required by the Act. The Association shall mail the notice to the mortgagee at the address provided in the mortgage or assignment for notices by certified mail, return receipt requested.

(d) The Association shall maintain a copy of the notice, proofs of mailing of the notice, and the ballots returned by mortgagees for a period of two years after the Control Date.

(e) The failure of a mortgagee to return a ballot within ninety (90) days from the date of mailing of the notice shall be deemed to constitute a vote for approval of the measure voted upon. The measure voted upon shall be considered approved by mortgagees if it is approved by the requisite number of mortgagees whose ballots are received, or are deemed approved or considered to have been received, by the person(s) authorized by the Board of Directors to tabulate mortgagee votes.”

4. Article III, Subparagraph 3.01 is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

“3.01 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of members, to elect directors and conduct any other business that may come before the meeting, shall be held on a date, and at a time and place designated by the Board of Directors, unless the members act by written consent under Section 407, or by ballot under Section 408 or 409 of the Michigan Non-profit Corporation Act, or any successor provisions, in place of the annual meeting. Special meetings of members may be called in the manner set forth in the Association Bylaws.”

5. Article III, of the Condominium Bylaws is amended to add the following as new Subparagraph 3.06:

“3.06 Remote Communications. Members may only participate in a meeting of the members by remote communication, including telecommunication, if the Board approves a method for doing in advance of the meeting and furnishes notice to co-owners of the method prior to the time the meeting is conducted. Any method of remote communication established by the Board of Directors for a meeting shall be the exclusive method for Co-owners to participate in the meeting by remote communication. The Board shall specify the manner of determining who is entitled to participate in the meeting and vote remotely, and a method for voting which is reasonably calculated to produce an accurate vote count, whenever participation in a meeting by remote communication is allowed.”

6. Article III, of the Condominium Bylaws is amended to add the following as new Subparagraph 3.07:

“3.07 Voting by Electronic Transmission. Member voting on, or consent to any action of the members may occur by electronic transmission, or by physical action, or both, if authorized by the Board of Directors. The Board may establish rules to govern these processes.”

7. Article III of the Condominium Bylaws is amended to add the following as new Subparagraph 3.08:

“3.08 Polling Place. The Board of Directors may authorize the use of polling places for members to cast votes, return ballots or otherwise express their consent or opposition to any measure which may lawfully be the subject of membership action. A polling place may be a physical location. Unless otherwise precluded by law, a polling place may also be any digital platform which facilitates the processing of ballots by electronic transmission, including but not limited to an internet website.”

8. Article IV, Paragraph 4.03 of the Condominium Bylaws is amended to read in its entirety:

“4.03 Term; Removal; Vacancy.

- (a) The term of office for a director is specified by the Association Bylaws.
- (b) A director or the entire Board may be removed with or without cause by a majority vote of the members entitled to vote.
- (c) A vacancy on the Board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, may be filled in the manner specified by the Association Bylaws.”

9. Article IV, Subparagraph 4.04 of the Condominium Bylaws is amended to add the following as new Subparagraph (o):

“(o). Making non-material amendments to the Master Deed, Condominium Bylaws and other Condominium Documents by unanimous consent of the Board as described in Section 8.1 of the Master Deed.”

10. Article IV, Subparagraph 4.05 of the Condominium Bylaws is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

“4.05 Books of Accounts.

(a) The Association shall keep books and records of account and minutes of the proceedings of its members, board, and executive committee(s), if any. The Association shall keep at its registered office records that contain the names and addresses of all members of record, the number of memberships held by each member, and the dates when they respectively became members. Any of the books, records, or minutes may be in written form or in any other form that is convertible into written form within a reasonable time. The Association shall convert into written form without charge any record that is not in written form, if requested by a person that is entitled to inspect the record.

(b) The books and records shall contain a detailed account of the expenditures and receipts affecting the administration of the Condominium Project, which shall specify the maintenance and repair expenses of the Common Elements and any other expenses incurred by or on behalf of the Association and its Co-owners. The Association's books and records shall be reviewed or audited annually by a certified public accountant if required by the Act, unless an affirmative vote of a majority of the members elects not to do so. The cost of such review or audit shall be an expense of administration.

(c) Any member, in person or by attorney or other agent, may during regular business hours inspect for any proper purpose the Association's list of its members, and its other books and records, if the member gives the Association written demand describing with reasonable particularity the purpose of the inspection and the records the member desires to inspect, and the records sought are directly connected with the purpose. As used in this subparagraph, "proper purpose" means a purpose that is reasonably related to a person's interest as a member. A member must deliver a demand under this subparagraph to the Association at its registered office or at its principal place of business. If an attorney or other agent is the person seeking to inspect the records, the demand must include a power of attorney or other writing that authorizes the attorney or other agent to act on behalf of the member. The right of a member to inspect records includes the right to copy and make extracts from the records of a Association and, if reasonable, the right to require the Association to supply copies made by photographic, xerographic, or other means. To cover the cost of labor and material, the Association may require a member to pay a reasonable charge for copies of the documents provided to the member.

(d) The Association, acting by resolution of its directors or members, may in good faith deny a request to inspect its books and records if it reasonably determines: (a) the inspection is sought for an improper purpose; (b) the records sought are not directly connected with the person's stated purpose; (c) the requested disclosure impairs the rights of privacy or free association of the members; (d) fulfilling the request would impair the lawful purposes of the Association; (e) fulfilling the request is not in the best interests of the Association; or (f) fulfilling the request is barred by another lawful reason.

(e) The Association, at least once in each calendar year, shall prepare or have prepared a financial report for the preceding fiscal year and distribute that report to each member, or present the report at the annual meeting of members. The report shall include all of the following for the Association's preceding fiscal year:

- (1) Its income statement;

- (2) Its year-end balance sheet, including funds restricted by the board;
- (3) Its statement of source and application of funds, if the Association prepares that statement; and
- (4) Any other information required by law..

The Association may distribute the financial report electronically, either by electronic transmission of the report or by making the report available for electronic transmission. If the report is distributed electronically, the Association shall provide the report in written form to a member, or director on request.”

11. Article V, Paragraph 5.06 (a) of the Condominium Bylaws is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

“(a) All assessments levied against a Co-owner by the Association which are unpaid, together with interest on such sums, collection and late charges, advances made by the Association for taxes or other liens to protect its lien (a “protective advance”), and attorneys fees, constitute a lien upon the Unit or Units in the Project owned by the Co-owner at the time of the assessment or other charge became due, prior to all other liens except tax liens in favor of any state or federal taxing authority; and sums unpaid on a first mortgage of record except that assessments that are evidenced by a notice of lien, have priority over a first mortgage recorded subsequent to the recording of the notice of lien by the Association. For purposes of this subparagraph (a), the term “assessment” includes, without limitation, all regular and special assessments described in this Article V and all special assessments against Co-owners described elsewhere in these Bylaws, including fines arising under Article XII. The assessment lien upon each Condominium Unit owned by the Co-owner shall be in the amount assessed against the Unit, plus a proportionate share of the total of all other unpaid assessments attributable to Condominium Unit(s) no longer owned by the Co-owner but which become due while the Co-owner had title to the Unit(s).”

12. Article V of the Condominium Bylaws is amended to add the following as Subparagraph 5.10:

“5.10 Mortgagee Liability. If the mortgagee of a first mortgage of record or other purchaser of a condominium unit obtains title to the condominium unit as a result of foreclosure of the first mortgage, that mortgagee or purchaser and his or her successors and assigns are not liable for the assessments by the administering body chargeable to the unit that became due prior to the acquisition of title to the unit by that mortgagee or purchaser and his or her successors and assigns.”

13. Article X of the Condominium Bylaws is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

“ARTICLE X - ARBITRATION

10.1. Submission to Arbitration. Any dispute, claim or grievance arising out of or relating to the interpretation or application of the Master Deed, By-Laws or other Condominium Documents, or to any disputes, claims or grievances arising among or between the Co-owners or between such owners and the Association may, upon the election and written consent of the parties to any such dispute, claim or grievance, and written notice to the Association, be submitted to arbitration by the arbitration association and the parties thereto shall accept the Arbitrator's award as final and binding. All arbitration hereunder shall proceed in accordance with the Uniform Arbitration Act, as amended.

10.2 Preservation of Rights. In the absence of the election and written consent of the parties under subparagraph (a), neither a Co-owner nor the Association is prohibited from petitioning a Court of competent jurisdiction to resolve any dispute, claim or grievance. The election by the parties to submit any dispute, claim, or grievance to arbitration, however, prohibits the parties from petitioning the Courts regarding that dispute, claim or grievance.”

14. The last sentence of Article XII, Paragraph 12.03 of the Condominium Bylaws is amended to read: “In no event shall the fine exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per occurrence.”

15. Article XIII, Paragraph 13.02 of the Condominium Bylaws is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

“13.02. Notices. Notices provided for in the Act, this Master Deed and its exhibits, or other Condominium Documents, to the Association must be in writing, and shall be considered delivered when delivered to the resident agent of the Association at the registered office of the Association maintained with the State of Michigan, or to another address designated in writing by the Board of Directors of the Association for such purpose. Notice to the Association may be by electronic transmission, if authorized by the Board of Directors. Notice to co-owners shall be delivered to the persons and to the place designated under Article II, Subparagraph 2.04 of these Bylaws.”

16. Article XIII, Paragraph 13.04 is added to the Condominium Bylaws to read:

EXHIBIT A TO SIXTH AMENDMENT TO MASTER DEED OF RIVER BEND

AFFIDAVIT OF MAILING

STATE OF MICHIGAN     )
  ) ss
COUNTY OF KENT        )

Nicole Shenk, being duly sworn, deposes and says that:

1. She is employed by Charron Law, and acts as secretary to David W. Charron, attorney for Rogue River Bend Condominium Association, a Michigan non-profit corporation which serves as the association of co-owners of River Bend, a residential condominium project located in Kent County, Michigan.

2. On January 7, 2020, notices were sent to all co-owners of record in the River Bend condominium project of the Association's intent to record an amendment to the Master Deed, as required by Section 90(5) of the Michigan Condominium Act, pursuant to a list of owners supplied by the Association. Co-owners were also advised in writing that a consent resolution approving various measures, including the master deed amendment, had passed. Such notices were sent by first class mail, postage fully prepaid.

Further deponent saith not.
